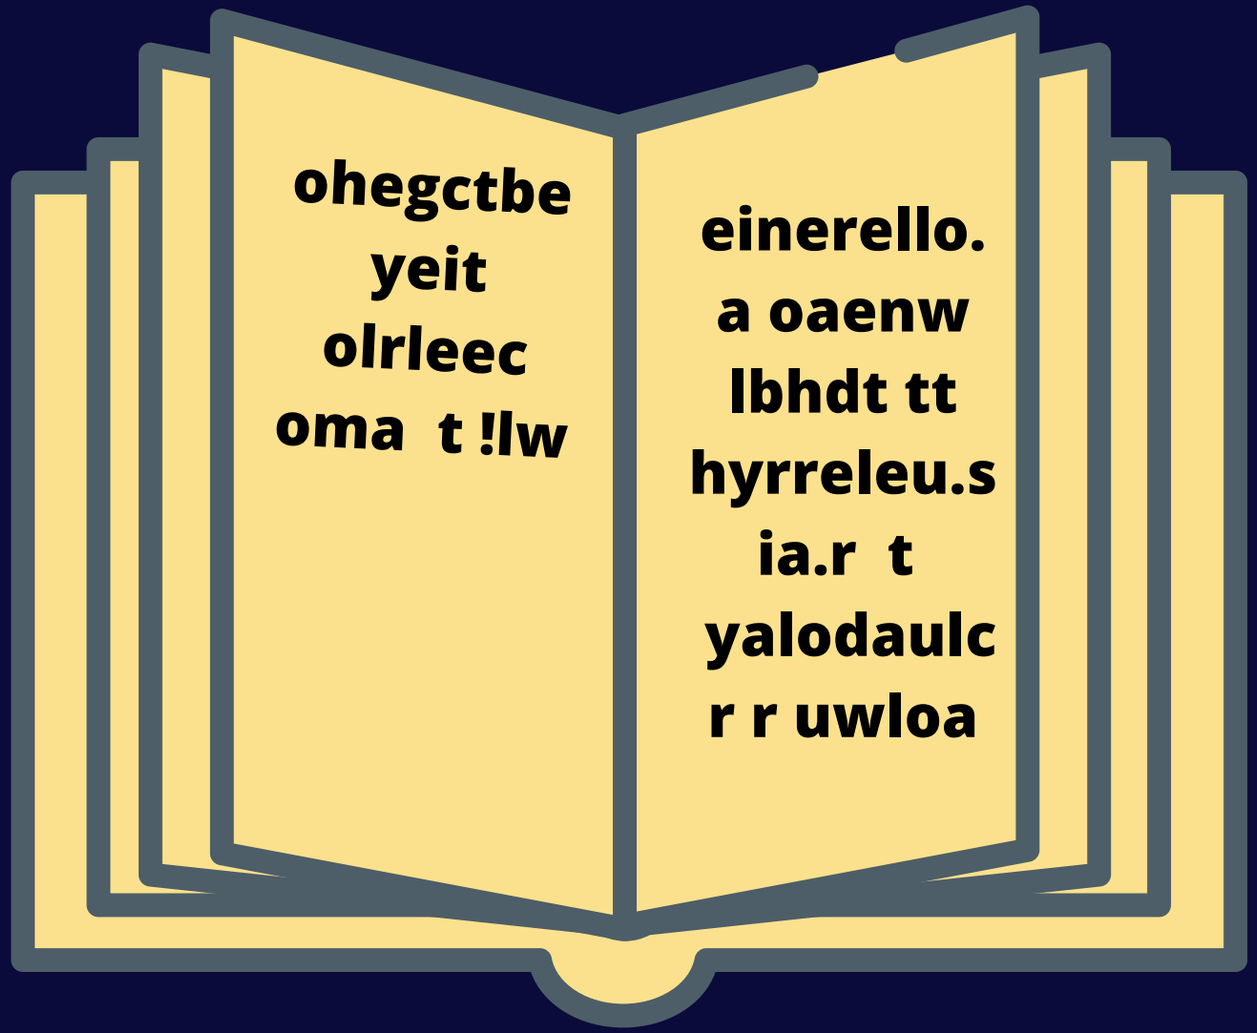
Website Note: Book fades in and opens up with scrambled text on its pages



Website Note: Letters begin to unscramble, revealing a welcome message

Website Note: A flat (2D) representation of the earth fades into view, all the countries are lit up with varying light intensities. A slider at the bottom allows the user to change the time period.

Website Note: Use your mouse to change the year (by dragging the slider), or drag along the 2D Map

Website Note: Hover over any country to view its name

Website Note: Click on the country to zoom in and view the literacy rates data for that specific country
